

Cittamani

Sunshine Coast Palliative Care

A community based charitable organisation that provides compassionate and professional palliative care in the Sunshine Coast region.

The Justin Crosby Story

Justin was proud to be a member of the Board of Cittamani because he respected and valued all that Cittamani strives to be. Because of his high regard for the organisation, he was committed to ensuring that it would continue to serve the local community.

While never anticipating he himself would soon need this remarkable service, he was most grateful to receive it. Justin and his family's experience of the final stages of life was in fact life-affirming because of the exceptional palliative care of the Cittamani Hospice Service.

He was a leader of the Sunshine Coast legal profession. His excellent mind and work ethic earned him the respect of us all. With his wit, easy manner and decency he earned our friendship and love. Justin was a great example of someone who ran a successful practice but still squeezed every ounce out of his personal life. Justin's love for his wife, his children and the Sunshine Coast were for all to see.

Bequests

Without the generosity of everyday Australians, charities like Cittamani wouldn't even exist. We provide our services free-of-charge and in the client's home. Cittamani Hospice Service is a community based Not for Profit organisation that provides compassionate and professional palliative care in the Sunshine Coast region.

There are numerous ways that a bequest can assist our organisation and we would be happy to speak with you about this in more detail if required. All discussions are confidential.
